

Charles Sorbie Department of Surgery Research Day
A Department of Surgery CME Event

Friday, April 12, 2019

At BAN RIGH HALL – Levana Room (downstairs)
University Avenue and Bader Lane, Kingston, ON, K7L 3N6

OBJECTIVES:

This program will provide participants with an opportunity to enhance surgical research by familiarizing themselves with the research activities of others within the Department of Surgery at Queen's University. This will also provide research mentorship for our surgical residents. Guest speakers will review the role of research in surgical education and the influence on industry.
